

GO Teams Guides: Virtual “A-Thon” Fundraiser

Do you have gamers in your community? Readers? Sewers? Knitters? People who grow facial hair? Walkers? Runners? Rollers? Dancers? They are already doing those things. Why not pit them against each other to raise money? This is a great opportunity for members of your community from 4 to 104 to participate.

How To

1. Pick a day for a virtual race, or gaming marathon, or dancing or a period of time for reading or creating and ask members of your community to commit to running the 5k or sewing 15 masks, or pages read, or hours danced. Then they can share their commitment and ask for pledges.
2. Virtual races can be done outside or inside and can be running, walking, biking, or canoeing. Anything that can be done as an in-person race can be done as a virtual race when the goal is not to win, but raise money.
3. Make a facebook group for reading and creative a-thons so folks can share their progress and work.

Some More Tips

- Start planning at least a month in advance so you have time to make arrangements and promote your event.
- Set a goal that is achievable, but not easy.
- Make an event page on Facebook, send invitations, announce it on your website, put an ad in local newsletters and newspapers, send email reminders a day or so before the event.
- Partner up with other groups! Let other local freethought groups know about your event. Consider contacting special interest clubs who would also support the charity you’ve chosen, or partner with religious groups and spark some friendly competition.
- Enjoy yourself!
